Is a project of a secondary school from Baru, Romania, coordinated by the Ministry of Communications and Information Society that took part in the sixth edition of the GLOBAL JUNIOR CHALLENGE in 2012. The idea was to develop complementary activities, characterized by the creative use of computers by young school children, through the development of the skills of the modern pedagogical practice. The close collaboration between project participants was intended to assimilate new techniques for using computers in education and attract new users from rural areas. The idea then, has attracted the interest of many schools in other countries.

To participate in the new edition of GLOBAL JUNIOR CHALLENGE, 27 to 30 October 2015, Rome, fill out the form under the heading of the site: "Rules"
